The Santorin seed has ripened to a fresh crop. The second Ambassadors release presents the Roots'n'Future of Drum'n'Bass, with new quality releases by their established producers, plus some truly hot material by new buds nurtured from all over Germany.

Straight from the small but bountiful grounds of Tübingen this distinct and exclusive selection is once again providing some fresh flavour to the pretty rigid Drum'n'Bass establishment. Ground breaking releases like "DBMC" by Double J. lead the way into a more independent and mature German Drum'n'Bass scene, while smash hits like Simon V's "Icebreaker" and "Concrete Jungle" by Duo Infernale easily match international standards, rocking clubs worldwide with power and soul.

Once again, Santorin places no boundaries on creative potential, just lets it grow and picks the best. One of the most famous and longest running Drum'n'Bass events in Germany, Santorin's monthly Pressure party, gives confirmation to the success of this philosophy. So get a grip on the authentic Tübingen vibe!

(NXTEP France 11.2002)

THE GREEN MAN (TGM) –MR. ONE

The master of floating patterns gives us a taste of his expertise in creating a unique and futuristic Drum'n'Bass sound. Very deep on the intro, leading you into the centercore of Mr. Green Mans musical circuits keeping it hot rolling. Thanx to "The One" - there's no better intro tune than this. [vinyl: SAN-017]

DUO INFERNALE –CONCRETE JUNGLE

Duo Infernale, a new breed from Berlin, caused international interest previous to their first release. With a real catchy classic lick and vocal samples, "Concrete Jungle" takes you back to the good vibes of Drum'n'Bass. Many labels would've liked to add this track to their catalogue - we got it! Already a classic. [vinyl: SAN-016]

SIMON V –ICEBREAKER (SLAM EDIT)

The second coming of the epic hymnus by Simon V. The "Slam Edit" comes equipped with a serious beat and bassline power up, a definite peak point for your DJ-set. Additional vocals by brand new talent Shoot The Kitten. Rewind, my Selecta! [vinyl: SAN-015]

JERICHO –OCEAN 11

A new act with his first release, introducing himself with some chilly but determined flavour. This track is like a plunge into liquid sounds that get your ocean sizzling and bubbling with a gust of the bassdrop. A definite roller to flush through the speakers, leaving it all nice and sparkling clear: we want more Jericho sound. This man has got mad skills. [vinyl: SAN-015]

YOUNG AX FEAT. MC RAMON –CONFUSED (RADIO EDIT)

The original Berlin-Köpenick posse young ax, MC Ramon and guitar player Holger Frank, came up with some real Jungle love. "Confused", a fresh mixture of O-junglist breaks for the lads and some vocals for the ladies, combined with bossa-nova-flavoured guitar licks. This extraordinary fusion with the highly individual MC-style by Ramon is destined to keep the summer feelin alive, 365. [vinyl: SAN-014]

YOUNG AX –SUNRISE (EDIT 2004)

Released in 2001 on S Limited, "Sunrise" combines simple but effective Amenbreaks with a Reggae hook. The new tightened Edit brings it even more on point. [vinyl: S Limited 002]

COURT JESTER'S CREW –SHAKE A LEG (TELMO A. REMIX)

Some new Tübingen brew. This tune is a Jungle like remix of the classic tune "Shake A Leg" by the former Reggae/Ska-combo Court Jester's Crew. Vocals performed by Don Rockshah and Spruddy One. Some different flavour that puts the fun back into Drum'n'Bass and makes you shake that leg nice and relaxed. [vinyl: SAN-017]

DOUBLE J. –DBMC (JENS MC REIMUZI VERSION)

"DBMC" is an anthem-like combination of New-Skool-Drum'n'Bass and some classic Jungle elements supported by a catchy Ragga-hook. A breakthrough release in German Drum'n'Bass, presenting some very tight, high speed toasting in German that truly buries the argument of those who don't believe in German Drum'n'Bass-MCing as a viable alternative. [vinyl: SAN-013]

THETAPHI –MAGIC FLUTE

All you Atari and C64 Fasttrackerz, hackerz and crackerz - this is 8 bit sound at its best, combined with some slammin' breaks. Never forget where you come from, an homage to all computer geeks that supplied us with our first software to make all this possible. Thanx for eternity, we really appreciate it. [vinyl: S Limited 400]

ONE SOUL –ONE NYTE

Come, spend the night with One Soul from the Hard:edged crew. This highly demanded track has been around on dubplate for quite a while. "One Nyte" will be finally available at stores after having rocked so many nights in the clubs. The vocals are performed by One Soul himself, with only four lines, making clear what's it all about: "... my whole crew is on some club shit." [vinyl: SAN-016]

SIMON V & TELMO A. –DAYS LIKE THIS

After "Treasure Island" (the intro on the first Ambassadors), Simon V and Telmo A. teamed up once again to deliver another trip through deep soundscapes. The mixture of strings and vocoder serves to instil the track with a catchy atmosphere. Many layers of drumrolls intertwine to a tight base that is only broken of some halftime action later on. We need more Days Like This! [vinyl: SAN-012]

JÄÄRÄPÄÄT & SIMON V –NUKU NUKU

The "pigheaded fellows" (=Jääräpäät) interpret this ancient Finnish runic lullaby on its own way. Simon V adds his trademark drums and bass to make it an unique Downbeat killer even for the Finns. Instrumentation Jääräpäät: finnish female singer Laura Ryhänen, violin: Bernhard Mohl, accordion: Christian Ther. [vinyl: - - -]
